Seasons, Changes

A gorgeous spring is underway in the desert Southwest, though our minds are already into next winter... Yes, we are currently planning Yatra's second season of yoga journeys! Three new teachers are coming aboard for 2010 (from both coasts actually) and we look forward to welcoming new friends, and continuing to work with our growing base of clients seeking renewal, beauty and peace.

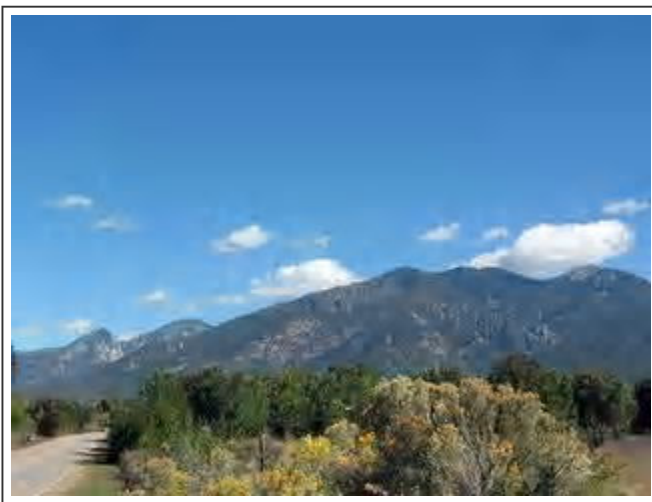

And - Phase I of Yatra's store is nearly ready to go! Look for great products from our friends at Doce Vida Fitness wear, Osea Skin Care, Nila Bindu Jewelry, and Beauty Scoop - plus the perfect eco-friendly yoga mats and carrying straps, coming soon...

Wishing you all a great summer.

Why We Love Taos

We've been on the road a lot lately to far-flung destinations, and while we truly love it, once springtime approaches we are happy to be close to home.
